

Writers by Nature

The BRIT SEED School Presents

Successful Strategies to Grow Young Authors and Scientists

Date: January 17, 2012

Time: 5 p.m. - 7 p.m.

Cost: Free (CPE credits are available for $5 each-one credit per hour)

Come join us for the first 2012 Teacher Tuesday Discussion Topic. Teachers will share ideas that have made their 3rd grade students winners in the Great Tree Essay Contest.

Learn a powerful teaching tool that is rooted in the TEKS, how to connect children to nature and get children outside, while cultivating writing skills.

Please come to learn and share how to combine writing and science to engage all 3rd graders.

Wine and appetizers will be served.

Please RSVP to Tracy Friday at tfriday@brit.org or call 817.546.8693.
